Assisted Living

The Main Assisted Living facility is a residential community offering assistance with activities of daily living. Some of these include bathing, dressing, shaving, toileting, and medication management.

We also offer nutritious meals and snacks, a full-time Activity Director, a Chaplain, Beauty/Barber Shop, transportation to local medical appointments, basic cable, and WiFi.

Memory Care

Cross Road Memory Care is the assisted living alternative for those suffering from Alzheimer's disease or related memory disorders. In this secured environment, our well-trained staff provides professional and compassionate care to the residents. A full-time Activity Director schedules appropriate activities geared toward those with dementia.

Services include: Medication management, assistance with personal care, including dressing, bathing, shaving, toileting and grooming. Services also include Nutritious meals and snacks, personal laundry, 24 hour supervision, transportation to local medical appointments, basic cable, and WiFi.

Independent Living

The Village consists of apartments, villas and cottages with several different floor plans to accommodate personal preferences. Some of the services included are utilities, trash collection, housekeeping, grounds maintenance, and an emergency call system.

There are many social, religious, and recreational programs offered, all in a pet friendly atmosphere.
