Dream Makers

Who would have ever thought that Neely's dream was to see Elvis and hold him tight? If a picture is worth a thousand words, how much is this one worth? Dream Makers helps to make our residents dreams
come true.

JD and his family visited Little Washington, the place where he grew up. His daughter has said many times “you will never know what a blessing we received.”

Celebrating a birthday with family members who had no contact and had been searching for each other over 40 years is more than a dream. Moments like this are what we strive for.

Dream Makers mission is to make dreams come true while the opportunity remains for our residents. Meeting this goal will enhance the quality of life of all our residents by making a reality of the dreams our people dare to dream. Dream Makers is made up of staff whose goal is to show love, care, and respect for those in the winter of their youth. We are currently seeking family and

With every new resident that comes to Cross Road, there comes a new dream to make happen. In the past 7 years, we have been able to fulfill close to 60 dreams. Big or small, it is our goal to fulfill every dream that is possible!

When Rosalee was asked what she would like to do, her answer was quick; she would love to go surf fishing once again! When she and staff members came home, the staff said they “had never been so blessed!”

Margie and her daughter flew to Dallas, Texas to visit her brother. Their comment: “This wasn’t just a dream; it was a miracle!”
